

AMERICAN BAPTIST WOMEN IN MINISTRY
DAUGHTERS OF THE FLAME CONFERENCE
CONFERENCE EVALUATION

Rate Scale = Lowest = 1 Highest = 10

1. How do you rate the overall Daughters of the Flame Conference? 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
2. How do you rate the Hilton St. Louis Airport Hotel? 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
3. What did you enjoy most about the Daughters of the Flame Conference?
4. What did you enjoy least about the Daughters of the Flame Conference?
3. What was most helpful to you during the Daughters of the Flame Conference?
4. What was least helpful to you during the Daughters of the Flame Conference?
5. What ideas/strategies/learning(s) will you apply to your ministry or service setting as a result of attending the Daughters of the Flame Conference?
6. Please provide names and contact information of preachers, bible study leaders, musicians, panelists, strategy group leaders you would like to participate in future ABWIM Conferences.
7. What would you like to see included in future American Baptist Women In Ministry Conferences?
8. Are you willing to work with the ABWIM Director to refine, define and execute ABWIM advocacy strategies drawn from the work of the Conference Strategy Groups? Write grant proposals? (Please add your name and contact information.)
9. Please briefly describe your Daughters of the Flame Conference experience. Your comments may appear on the ABCUSA and ABWIM website, be used in a grant proposal, press release and an ABWIM brochure. Please feel free to add another page for your comments.

Regarding each Conference Objective, please check the response that best describes your experience

2008 ABWIM Conference Objectives:

Objectives	Activities	Excellent	Satisfactory	Failed
- To identify strategic advocacy components for implementation nationally, regionally and locally.	Provide three opportunities for meeting in various strategic planning groups.
- To promote self-care, spiritual nurture, networking;	Provide meaningful small group opportunities for participants to identify self-care needs. Provide opportunities for connecting with others.
- To establish mentoring relationships;	Provide opportunities for experienced and inexperienced ministry leaders to connect and establish on-going relationships.
- To identify new sources of revenue, proposal writers, to assure the continuation of advocacy for WIM	Provide opportunities for creative sharing and discovery of financial streams for ABWIM funding.
- To establish networks for WIM advocacy on national, regional, and local congregation levels;	Encourage full participation in formal and informal activities with support to establish avenues of continued connectedness.
- To share resources	Provide human and material resources that will assist participants with future ministry.
- To provide seminars, Bible Studies, and preaching sessions that will strengthen existing ministry skills and contribute to professional development of WIM.	Invite Conference leaders who are ministry professionals in their leadership capacity.

